

Ohio

An Automotive Powerhouse

Ohio is the second largest U.S. automotive state. Companies gain access to an automotive workforce of over 108,000, which is 40 percent more than the regional average. Located within the largest concentration of automotive establishments in the United States, companies in Ohio leverage efficient and affordable access to materials, customers and suppliers to give them a competitive edge. Seven light vehicle assembly plants producing 12 light vehicle models in Ohio are supported by a robust in-state supply chain.

The Full Supply Chain
